

EPP Praxis Testing Agreement

Due to the Covid-19 pandemic the School of Education Human Development and Consumer Sciences is conditionally admitting students to the EPP, providing the student passes the Praxis I within one semester of being admitted into the EPP. To continue transitioning through the program, the student must pass the following Praxis I CASE (Core) exams.

- Core Reading (5712)
- Core Writing (5722)
- Core Math (5732)

If the student does not pass the Praxis I CASE (Core) exams, the student will be transitioned into one of the following non-teaching programs, or a non-related program within the EPP until the Praxis I exam has been successfully completed.

- PE- Non-teaching
- Music
- CDF- Child Development and Families

I, the student candidate seeking admittance to the School of Education, Human Development, and Consumer Sciences (EPP), fully understand the expectations and regulations for being admitted into the EPP. I, the student candidate fully understand the expectations of the EPP in reference to passing the Praxis I CASE (Core) exam, and the time frame for having to pass the exam. If you have any concerns, please feel free to call or email Dr. Forde.

Sincerely,

Dr. Timothy Forde
