Physical Education Teaching Degree Requirements

THE PHYSICAL EDUCATION TEACHING MAJOR

The Bachelor of Science in Physical Education Teaching (P-12) candidate at may choose from two options. Candidates may choose the physical education teacher education certification route, or they may choose to earn dual certification in both health and physical education certification. Coursework for physical education teaching certification includes courses in exercise science and education. Upon completion of their degree, candidates will receive a certification in physical education, grades P-12. Candidates in this program leave prepared to take professional roles as teachers, fitness coaches, health teachers and personal trainers. The degree program also prepares candidates to move into graduate studies in the area of physical therapy.

The School of Education

The Educator Preparation Program is designed to prepare teachers to pursue positions in P-12 schools. There are 10 teaching areas in the Educator Preparation Program from which to choose. They are Studio Art Education, Biology Education, Elementary Education, English Education, Health Education (in conjunction with Physical Education Teaching), Math Education, Music Education, Social Studies Education, Physical Education Teaching and Interdisciplinary Early Childhood Education. The School of Education has one graduate program the Master of Arts in Special Education (LBD P-12). There are two non-teaching areas in the School of Education: Physical Education and Child Development.

As liberators through education, KSU teacher candidates are primarily learners who recognize the value of education and the inherent power of acquiring and utilizing knowledge. They understand the intellectual diligence required to acquire the knowledge necessary to qualify as a professional educator; they acquire the content knowledge important to the teaching in their content area; they know the primary importance of effective communication skills; they know the need to serve the community as a leader and role model who will shape diverse communities and exemplify the principles of high ethical conduct and individual responsibility; and they know that the pursuit of knowledge is a lifelong endeavor and continually seek to develop in their students a love of learning.
