Please provide any additional comments about the information provided above:

Candidates must provide a personal statement of your goals.

Section I.c Enrollment

Provide the number of students in the teacher preparation program in the following categories. Note that you must report on the number of students by ethnicity and race separately. Individuals who are non-Hispanic/Latino will be reported in one of the race categories. Also note that individuals can belong to one or more racial groups, so the sum of the members of each racial category may not necessarily add up to the total number of students enrolled.

For the purpose of Title II reporting, an enrolled student is defined as a student who has been admitted to a teacher preparation program, but who has not completed the program during the academic year being reported. An individual who completed the program during the academic year being reported is counted as a program completer and not an enrolled student.

Additional guidance on reporting race and ethnicity data.

Section I.d Supervised Clinical Experience

Provide the following information about supervised clinical experience in 2012-13.

Average number of clock hours of supervised clinical experience required prior to student teaching	0
Average number of clock hours required for student teaching	0
Average number of clock hours required for mentoring/induction support	15
Number of full-time equivalent faculty supervising clinical experience during this academic year	5
Number of adjunct faculty supervising clinical experience during this academic year (IHE and PreK-12 staff)	1

Please provide any additional information about or descriptions of the supervised clinical experiences:

There are three (3) tracks in the Student Teaching (Practicum) Capstone requirement. Students with no experience as a teacher of record complete a 400 hour experience; students who have served as teacher of record in public schools with special needs students complete the 200 hour practicum experience; candidates who are teacher of record in public school classrooms engage in the 100 hour practicum experience.

Section I.e Teachers Prepared by Subject Area

Please provide the number of teachers prepared by subject area for academic year 2012-13. For the purposes of this section, number prepared means the number of program completers. "Subject area" refers to the subject area(s) an individual has been prepared to teach. An individual can be counted in more than one subject area. If no individuals were prepared in a particular subject area, please leave that cell blank. (§205(b)(1)(H))

Section II Assurances

Please certify that your institution is in compliance with the following assurances. (§205(a)(1)(A)(iii), §206(b)) Note: Be prepared to provide documentation and evidence for your responses, when requested, to support the following assurances.

Preparation responds to the identified needs of the local educational agencies or States where the program completers are likely to teach, based on past hiring and recruitment trends.

Yes

Preparation is closely linked with the needs of schools and the instructional decisions new teachers face in the classroom.

Yes

Prospective special education teachers are prepared in core academic subjects and to instruct in core academic subjects.

Yes

Prospective general education teachers are prepared to provide instruction to students with disabilities.

Yes

Prospective general education teachers are prepared to provide instruction to limited English proficient students.

Yes

Prospective general education teachers are prepared to provide instruction to students from low-income families.

Yes

Prospective teachers are prepared to effectively teach in urban and rural schools, as applicable.

Yes

Describe your institution's most successful strategies in meeting the assurances listed above:

"We have established collaborative partnerships with local service area districts and conducted needs assessments to determine their needs. This has been helpful in our meeting their needs. Since last year additional collaborations have been established. In addition an online professional development center has been established to serve our district in service teachers, pre service teachers and higher education faculty. Topical themes are derived from the needs assessment and from current education reform initiatives such as the Common Core Academic Standards and Cultural Competency. We engaged the services of a part-time placement coordinator for the online Master of Arts in Special Education program. She trains supervised teachers and cooperating teachers in the our assessment system, LiveText Clinical data system and makes clinical assignments. We also teach LEP through several classes in the curriculum but we do not offer a certification program in the area."

Section IV Low-Performing

Provide the following information about the approval or accreditation of your teacher preparation program.

Is your teacher preparation program currently approved or accredited?

Yes

If yes, please specify the organization(s) that approved or accredited your program:

State
NCATE

Is your teacher preparation program currently under a designation as "low-performing" by the state (as per section 207(a) of the HEA of 2008)?

No

Section V Use of Technology

Provide the following information about the use of technology in your teacher preparation program. Please note that choosing 'yes' indicates that your teacher preparation program would be able to provide evidence upon request.

Does your program prepare teachers to:

- integrate technology effectively into curricula and instruction
Yes
- use technology effectively to collect data to improve teaching and learning
Yes
- use technology effectively to manage data to improve teaching and learning
Yes

- use technology effectively to analyze data to improve teaching and learning

Yes

Provide a description of the evidence that your program uses to show that it prepares teachers to integrate technology effectively into curricula and instruction, and to use technology effectively to collect, manage, and analyze data in order to improve teaching and learning for the purpose of increasing student academic achievement. Include a description of the evidence your program uses to show that it prepares teachers to use the principles of universal design for learning, as applicable. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the four elements listed above are not currently in place.

Candidates in this exclusively on-line program must demonstrate through the use of planned lessons (integrated and unit) how technology is infused. This includes the use of assistive or other technologies such as smart board clickers, video clips, graphing calculators and smart board. Within courses, candidates must use programs such as Excel to input baseline data, calculate data for use in FBI (Functional Behavioral Assessments) and chart data for use in determining appropriate instructional and behavioral activities. Research classes require student to manipulate “data” to predict outcomes and draw conclusions and to develop research prospectus’. Candidate are engaged in direct instruction via methods and courses and the professional development site in Universal Design. They must participate in communal blogs, instructional planning, webinars and submit evidence of Universal Design in their respective portfolios and assignments. A rationale with research supported evidence must accompany their plans.

Section VI Teacher Training

Provide the following information about your teacher preparation program. Please note that choosing 'yes' indicates that your teacher preparation program would be able to provide evidence upon request.

Does your program prepare general education teachers to:

- teach students with disabilities effectively
Yes
- participate as a member of individualized education program teams
Yes
- teach students who are limited English proficient effectively
Yes

Provide a description of the evidence your program uses to show that it prepares general education teachers to teach students with disabilities effectively, including training related to participation as a member of individualized education program teams, as defined in section 614(d)(1)(B) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, and to effectively teach students who are limited English proficient. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the three elements listed above are not currently in place.

At the graduate level, candidates engage in field experiences during their coursework and the culminating practicum. During these experiences, candidates’ assignments in assessment, IEP, FBA and required assessments are correlated with coursework. Candidates, under the supervision of the cooperating teacher, must carry out such assessments and use this data to write assessment reports. From this data, they must analyze and develop appropriate programs, giving appropriate researched data to support their decisions. Candidates are also required to develop a professional development seminar for general education teachers to demonstrate how to engage in collaborative-team teaching. In specific courses (methods) they are required to plan lessons and units with regular education teachers and demonstrate via narrative how these lessons will be taught collaboratively. Through the Special Education Law course, Introduction to Special Education and Methods courses, they are engaged in activities, discussion boards an

Does your program prepare special education teachers to:

- teach students with disabilities effectively
Yes
- participate as a member of individualized education program teams
Yes
- teach students who are limited English proficient effectively
Yes

Provide a description of the evidence your program uses to show that it prepares special education teachers to teach students with disabilities effectively, including training related to participation as a member of individualized education program teams, as defined in section 614(d)(1)(B) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, and to effectively teach students who are limited English proficient. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the three elements listed above are not currently in place.

LEP has been infused into our introductory and methods courses. Curriculum revision with the new Common Core Standards coupled with 21st Century Skills have significantly improve candidates' awareness and competency with LEP students. Methods courses require candidates to develop lessons that integrate the LEP best practices, universal design and technology to erase the LEP barrier and improve outcomes for this population.

Section VII Contextual Information

Please use this space to provide any additional information that describes your teacher preparation program(s). You may also attach information to this report card. The U.S. Department of Education is especially interested in any evaluation plans or interim or final reports that may be available.

"The teacher preparation program at Kentucky State University is designed with the undergirding belief that teachers are Liberators through Education. We believe that education is powerful and can serve as the source of changing one's life for the better. We offer programs in Interdisciplinary Early Childhood Education, Elementary Education; four secondary 9-12 program (English, Biology, Mathematics, and Social Studies); three K-12 areas (Art, Music and Health, and Physical Education); and an Alternative Initial Certification through the Master of Arts in Special Education (Learning Behavior Disorders K-12) program. We are a small program under new leadership. An Interim Chair has been identified as the
