1	More automated systems to allow for students to independently register and complete financial aid requirements.	5/13/2016 8:58 AM
2	Loved it!	5/11/2016 2:56 PM
3	I think there should be more events that focus on building self pride. They should focus on this institution being an HBCU and why that is important. There also needs to be a re connection or relationship built with the residents outside of agriculture. The support of the community is needed.	5/11/2016 11:00 AM
4	In regards to the nursing program, many changes need to implemented. I cannot speak about other programs, but I will say Dr. Wallin in the Biology Department is awesome. 15	A lot of staff I encountered made it difficult to accomplish the task at hand, or failed to give important information when needed. From financial aid, advising, cashier ect to encounters with staff. I found the customer service poor in comparison to the two other institutions I have attended. There was also lots of inequity in the nursing program. I think this school has an important heritage that should be perserved.	5/3/2016 4:26 PM

26	Wired is a horrible system. Classes get dropped at random for absolutely no reason. Dealing with anyone in the Administration offices are horrible experiences and the no ever answers the phone. Standards appear to be very low.	4/29/2016 7:07 PM
27	The administration has been non responsive. It is very hard to get anything completed if you are a student living off campus. I would not recommend it for someone trying to commute or work. I've had to take off alot of work to fill out forms that could be filled out online or sign a paper stating I live at a specific address. The online resources are very difficult to use and do not work often.	4/29/2016 6:49 PM

31	The nursing program is very unorganized. I think if a new director was hired to run the nursing program it would be better. This year has been crazy for ALL nursing students trying to finish their degree. If there was more organization and communication I think it wouldnt have been as bad.	4/29/2016 10:41 AM

39	It is only the nursing program. They have their groups they like and help. They are very disorganized and disrespectful to students except for Ms Godfrey, Ms. Broaddus and Ms. Senn	4/27/2016 2:19 PM
40	BETTER COMMUNICATION BETWEEN STAFF AND STUDENTS. BETTER ORGANIZATION.	4/27/2016 2:11 PM
41	You need to fix the nursing program. You put a teacher in place to run the nursing program and he doesnt know his ass from a hole in the ground in how to run this program. He is a nice guy though The teachers are older and even though they have experience I believe they need to be replaced with much younger teachers especially the lab instructor She is almost 80 years old. She does know her stuff though but it is time to retire.	4/27/2016 2:09 PM

I would not recommend this school to anyone because there have been threats of the school closing and I have had a lot of difficulties trying to get basic answers and paperwork back from various staff on campus. Some staff are very rude and inattentive. I almost didn't graduate on time because of so many "mix ups".	4/26/2016 3:24 PM

47	The nursing department needs an overhaul, I can see the university is trying to make improvements, there is too much leaway in the nursing department, the first year of nursing in the night program was fantastic, as those instructors were very good with students and with communication. the second year has been a nightmare	4/21/2016 2:05 PM
48	My experience with KSU has been positive overall. One of the biggest challenges has been a lack of adequate faculty to teach courses necessary for graduation requirements. 59	KSU has a lot of growth to do. I see the wonderful improvements that President Burse is doing to make this school better! However, we still have a long way to go. From the Academic Service Building to the departments of Majors, they have to be more organized and structured. It seems as though the majority of faculty and staff do not know their jobs. Whenever I needed information, no one ever knew the answer to give me. Also, no one helped me with the requirements I needed to obtain my degree or even go to graduate school. I had to research everything on my own. I felt as though I was my own advisor! This was really stressful and disappointing	4/8/2016 3:49 PM

61	The program required too much BS at the end that will not help in nursing and just stressed out the students during their preceptorship	4/6/2016 12:26 PM

65	The Child Development program and the Department of Education need to work to be on the same page for the benefit of the students in the IECE program. There are conflicting expectations for the students who are required to take courses in both areas. No continuity and lack of communication between the departments makes for a difficult experience for the students in the program. It is very difficult to reach some offices by phone. It has been necessary to call as I do not live in Frankfort. Calling the university usually results in getting voicemails and calls are not returned. Again the costumer service aspect of the university gets a low rating from me.	3/28/2016 2:12 PM
66	I think KSU would be a better institution if they got rid of antiquated ways of doing things- such as the scavenger hunt that is the signing of the senior survey. I am an online student- I am wondering around campus trying to find these offices that must sign my form. It should be online- especially for online students. I had to take the day off, drive to Frankfort, and wander around trying to find the library (which I've never used) in order to get amy sheet signed. This is just one snapshot of policies that are keeping KSU behind the times. Communication needs to improve and while some staff are absolutely outstanding, there are those (even holding high positions) who should be ashamed they draw a paycheck from this school for all the disservice they do to students. There are definitely bright spots, but I'm sorry to say that on the whole, my experience at KSU has been fairly miserable.	3/25/2016 10:04 AM

68	KSU should find different ways to get the graduate students more involved. As of now, majority of the graduate students do not know or are not included in events hosted by the university. Majority of the events and even tutors are more geared toward the undergraduate students.	3/23/2016 1:30 PM

78	I think that this school has the potential to be great, but I think it lacks what it needs. Things need to get in done in a more timely fashion. Also, whenever I deal with someone about something it ends up that they no longer works here and I have to deal with someone new. this happened to me 3 or 4 times	3/21/2016 2:20 PM
79	Kentucky State University's has qualified professionals along with a well thought out course curriculum. In order for the student body to grow, the perception surrounding the school must change. It must provide a more welcoming environment by improving the living areas and simply the quality of life.	3/21/2016 2:20 PM

Graduating Survey - Spring 2016

115	One aspect I believe the University should improve is the financial aspect. Many students have balances and payments that are unaccounted for and students are unclear about their accounts. When students have gone to ASB respect and student perspective is not always shown. Direct answers are not always given. Students appreciate clear, precise,informative, and timely responses. Solutions could also be provided. Employees should try sympathy and attempt empathy. All in all, faculty and staff should remember that students want to graduate because that is the end goal!	3/2/2016 2:20 PM
116	When i first attended KSu in 2009 i was very pleased with the University as a whole. I came to KSU to play football, and to better myself as a person. When i first started off, i was put in the wrong classes, and it set me back some time. I was originally a Biology major, but i changed majors because i would possibly still be in school. My last year of eligibility i was very disappointed in KSU how they treated me and a few other athletes when we were selected to play in a bowl game. I asked for help from the university to help sponsor it, but i feel like i didnt get the help i needed. They left us out to dry, and we were stuck in florida with nothing. We were trying to follow our dreams, but also trying to bring a more positive name on the university. We feel like we didnt get the support we needed. We had to get help through the alumni chapter in Miami. They supported us alot while we were down in miami for a week. In 2015 i was selected to be apart of the Washington Redskins, and i still feel like KSU didnt support that.	2/25/2016 11:59 AM
